

Nigel Lawson, Honorary Fellow University of Manchester. Nigel worked in the textile and distribution industries and subsequently as a researcher into brownfield land remediation, flood risk management and adaptation to climate change in urban environments. He is able to combine his practical experience of industry and business with academic research. He is the Honorary Secretary of the UK Urban Ecology Forum.