

Paul Nolan OBE Paul is a member of the Institute of Chartered Foresters and Chair of the National Community Forest Partnership.

His role as Mersey Forest Project Director involves managing the multidisciplinary team, developing and delivering the partnership business plan and budget, and working within a wide-ranging partnership to deliver the Government approved Mersey Forest Plan. Current major projects include Northern Forest, Natural Health Service, Urban GreenUP and innovative funding opportunities for woodland and greenspaces.